

KONG STRIKES BACK

Its program code, graphic representation and artwork are the copyright of Ocean Software Limited and may not be reproduced, stored, hired or broadcast in any form whatsoever without the written permission of O.S.L. All rights reserved worldwide.

The program runs on the Commodore 64.

LOADING

Position the cassette in your Commodore tape recorder with the printed side upwards and make sure that it is rewound to the beginning. Ensure that the all leads are connected. Press the SHIFT key and the RUN/STOP key simultaneously. The screen message should follow; press PLAY on tape. This program will load automatically. When loading is complete follow screen instructions.

PLAYING

Guide your man up the fairground track to rescue your damsel in distress who is waiting impatiently for you at the top of the track, but she is guarded by Kong who regularly releases cars down the Roller Coaster. You must avoid the cars or you will be knocked off the track and lose one of your four lives. You must also avoid other obstacles such as Waltzers, Hobby Horses, Bouncing Balls and Springs, and Swinging Gyms. You may stop the cars by bombing them but Kong will push another one out immediately. If your bonus time reaches zero you lose a life.

CONTROL

Plug the joystick in port one or two. The joystick controls the man in four directions, up, down, left or right. Push the joystick up to go up the ladders. Press the fire button to release the bomb.

STATUS and SCORING

HALL OF FAME showing the top 10 scores including the players initials. On screen is displayed the players score, high score, bombs left and bonus time on the screen level. As well as this the key bonuses are displayed when obtained and the letter bonuses are displayed when obtained. There are four different screens of play each of varying difficulty. After each level is completed the bonus time multiplied by ten is added to the player's score. Each car blown-up equals 500 points. The ladder bonuses equal 100 points. Obtaining all three pieces of the bonus key scores 5,000 points. Obtaining all letter bonuses gains an extra life plus 1,000 points.
